Serving Communities in Lake County Florida

New parents will have an opportunity to learn about child safety, early learning, positive parenting and healthy lifestyles at three upcoming events. The 26th Annual Baby Fairs are open to first-time or special needs parents, including women who are currently pregnant and parents of newborns. The events include an educational program and the opportunity to visit informational booth from local agencies and non-profit organizations. Pre-registration is not required and there is no cost for the event.

The Young Families Health Initiative Committee of Lake County is coordinating the events Cooperating agencies include: Florida Department of Health Lake County, UF/IFAS Lake County Extension, Early Learning Coalition, Healthy Families, Kids Central. The mission of the Young Families Health Initiative Committee is to have a positive effect on the lives of Lake County families through pre-natal and post-natal education.
