Eustis, FL – The Florida Department of Health in Lake County is inviting the public to participate in the next county-wide Community Health Improvement Planning Consensus Workshop series meeting at the Lake County Extension Services Building Auditorium, 1951 Woodlea Road, Tavares, FL 32778, from 9:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. on November 9, 2016. The theme, Playing the Music, Focused Implementation.

The consensus workshops are part of the community-driven strategic planning process of improving health using the Mobilizing for Action through Planning and Partnerships, or MAPP, model. The process results in a community health improvement plan (CHIP) for the next three years.

More information about the Mobilizing for Action through Planning and Partnerships (MAPP) model of community health planning can be found at <http://naccho.org/programs/public-health-infrastructure/mapp>.

Interested attendees are asked to RSVP in advance to DOHLakeChip@flhealth.gov. Feel free to contact Page Barningham at (352) 483-7967 if you have any additional questions.
